

Clinton Stanley Crowe

May 25, 1953 - May 10, 2020

Clinton Stanley Crowe, Assistant Professor of History and Political Science at Tulsa Community College, was born in Tulsa on May 25, 1952. In high school, he enjoyed playing in rock 'n' roll bands, camping, and horseback riding. After some years as a professional musician and real estate professional, he set out on an academic career. He received a B.A. in English Literature and a M.A. in History from Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, and a Ph.D. in history from the University of Arkansas. His principal academic focus was Oklahoma History. His book, Caught in the Maelstrom, The Indian Nations in the Civil War was recently published. He enjoyed the love of his family, playing Bach on his harpsichord, and was a huge fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. He was preceded in death by his parents, Harry M. Crowe Jr. and Martha W. Crowe, and niece Rebecca Crowe. He is survived by his brother Michael Crowe and his wife, Becky, of Las Vegas, Nevada; brother Robert Crowe and his wife, Nancy, of South Fork, Colorado; brother Kirby Crowe and his wife, Nancy of Coweta; and four nieces, Gretchen Crowe of Garfield, Arkansas; Amy Bobryk, her husband Ryan and daughter, Caroline of Orlando, Florida; Shelby Bowen and her husband, Matt of Tulsa; and Molly Crowe of Coweta. Donations in his honor may be made to the Tulsa Community College Foundation.

Comments

---

“ I’m so sorry to hear about Clint’s passing. Clint and I had many fun times together in 1980. I learned a lot from Clint. Deepest condolences to the family.

Stephanie Wilbanks - May 18 at 04:12 PM

---

“ I am deeply sadden to hear of Clint's passing. He and I met in the late 1980's and he has been a wonderful friend ever since. I am going to miss his so much, he touched my heart in a very special way.

Debbie Damato

Debbie Damato - May 16 at 04:40 PM

---

“ Clint and I went "steady" in jr high. That meant that one of his friends told me he liked me and asked me if I would wear his ID bracelet. I wore it for a week or two and then we broke up. Pretty sure that we never went anywhere in that time frame or even had a conversation! No hard feelings though, I later asked him if he liked a friend of mine and they "went steady" for awhile. He was truly a sweetheart.

Dinah Frost Hildebrand - May 16 at 11:16 AM

---

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family. I will miss Clint's sweet smile and laugh. He is now with his other two amigos.

Debi Foster

Debi Foster - May 15 at 02:01 PM