“ I am so grateful to have known Frank the last 6 months of his glorious life. He was an amazing man inspiring me by his example, his love, his courage, and his faith. I didn't have to read the comments of those who had known him for decades although I read every word , they confirmed my thoughts about this remarkable man. Even though I was just a short acquaintance in this world, I am confident that when I get to Heaven he will welcome me as Part of the family whose love knows no end... My prayers go out to his family and close friends because he is missed.

“ Sharing a memory of Frank is nigh unto impossible... there are so many. I met Frank, this giant of a man on the football field at Harding where we enjoyed our competitive spirit but in Chicago I watched his work at Lakeview where he serve the wealthy and the poorest among us and was respected by the community ... the experience he had, stories he told

But it was his love of good songs and sweet words of God's teaching that touched us all. Sitting around and hearing him and Gail sing folk songs and ballads still gives me chills. Over the years, Frank has never failed to pour into me (and probable everyone else) insight and wisdom. But I will forever remember when, just a few short weeks ago I was dealing with business struggle and ask Frank for prayer. Almost immediately Frank phoned me, it was well after 10pm. We talked about the situation and he shared wisdom with me until his breath forced him to stop.

Great warriors for God serve until their last breath. Frank was that man.

I can't wait to see this spiritual mountain of a man dancing on the golden street and singing praises to our Lord!

Thank you Frank, of all men I know you will hear the words, well done ... now you will be with me in paradise.

“ The memories I could share of Frank are too numerous to share because as I think of my friend the memories just come flooding through. Walking the streets together in uptown, humorous events tied up in pulpit swaps, Rockford Christian Camp, sing-alongs with friends, discovering George Mueller together with Chuck Miller, golf outings (including Frank spinning out in a golf cart at a Shults-Lewis fund-raiser), his deep baritone laugh...good memories. I pass on to you two thoughts that give good direction for life. The first is a saying of Frank's that has stuck with me through the years that carries a lot of wisdom: "Don't sweat the petty things and don't pet the sweaty things." The second is a biblical text that sums up Frank's life very well: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and all your strength...Love your neighbor as yourself." ...Bobby Lawson

“ Wow so much to say about this man (My dad). He has been there for me and so many others. Most of you know the struggles that he had and faced. But most days no matter what he still had his faith. As he told me a week before he went home. That he was tired and couldnt wait to dance, sing and play guitar. Love you and will miss you. Fly high with the Angels and will see you again. You will always be in heart and of course will carry you with me all the time.. Going to miss him calling for me. But I know he is in a better place.

“ Frank was so important to Rockford Christian Camp for many years and to the Lord's work in Chicago. He was an encourager to me in my responsibilities as Director of RCC. He honored Reta and me by asking us to his wedding. I look forward to being with Frank in God's eternal Kingdom. Our love to all his loving, caring and supportive family.

“ I first met Frank on a Harding Spring Break Campaign to Chicago in 1993, and then I was his intern at Lakeview in the fall of '95, where I lived with him and Nini for 4 months. I'll never forget the late night talks, with guitars in our hands, going in and out of songs, and then walking around with him in the neighborhood, eating together at Inspiration Cafe, hearing him preach and teach so masterfully. Thank you, Frank, for your well-lived life and Christ-like inspiration.

“ So many memories, we have shared laughter and tears together...always though ended with our strength in the one who placed the stars and the hairs on our head...you always put it in perspective. The stories could go on forever from Lakeview to how we arrived in Oklahoma...God is a funny guy in how he works things out but oh how he loves us, oh how he loved you, oh how you taught us to never doubt that whatever came, spiritually, physically, emotionally, financially, you were a steady voice on the other end of the phone. You counted us as someone you could call, for that I will always hold an honor. Love you, Nini, Annie, Bruno and your family as our own. Even though we knew this day would come, as it will for all of us, it still gives us a sting in our hearts. We know where you are brother. We are grateful for your life and light. We praise God for His glory for all of us to be joined together again. To one of the great dragon slayers, rest in the arms of the ultimate Dragon Slayer.

“ God used Frank to play a pivotal role in my life during my 4 years in Chicago. I was learning about ministry in the city, I was far from home and starting a relationship with Paula. Frank taught me how to relate honestly and with humility to those who are in a different life-situation. He taught me how to be transparent with my own 'issues' and be flexible enough to "roll with the punches" in life. I am grateful for your influence in my life, Frank.

Paula and I are a better couple and better Christians because of you!

Paula - December 31, 2021 at 04:16 PM

“ Life leads us down many paths. I am so happy that my path intersected with Frank's at the Lakeview Church of Christ. Frank's sermons were meaningful and provided guidance. His humility, compassion, and commitment exemplified what it means to follow Jesus. I am thankful for his example. I am grateful to have spent time in his presence. Rest in peace, my Christian brother.

“ Going to miss him and playing music with him. Had some great times with Frank, Cory, and Dennis and all the nice people at his home.

John Morgan - January 01 at 02:23 PM

“ My son George and daughter Linda Cunningham talked about his ans agree we don't know what to sayy other thn that in Frank we have seen a vivid faith-filled and lifelong gallantry in servic at times with astonishinge to and for God and people. Syrupy-sounding or not we're honored to be counted by him as dear friends. In health and in prolonged extreme physical anguish his faith was worthy of the Lord Jesus. He made Jesus believable and worthy of hope-filled commitment and he did it at times with astonishing (Yes!) humor and rich faith-energizing verbal teaching about the God whose Son he called his Savior and Lord. His wife Nini and daughter Ann and devoted nurses made at least tolerable what would have been intolerable. Only God knows this entire story and as Frank repeatedly said, "The Judge of all the earth does right!" Now he happily waits a post-resurrection to immortality, adventure, mystery, joy and righteousness with all those embraced in the saving work of the Lord Jesus. “ Frank was definitely a blessing for so many years, both in our teenage years, college years, and being amazingly encouraged by him, even in his tremendous health struggles over the last years. So many special memories of singing and playing guitar with him and just listening to his amazing talent as he sang, being involved in Bible classes, youth activities, and spending time together with both of our families, growing up! He was always someone that pointed everyone to a reliance on God. He will truly be missed by so many here on this earth!

Tanya Valls - January 03 at 08:04 PM

“ So many good memories of my time with him at 12th Street Church of Christ in Shallowater, TX. He wasn't even tall enough to see him over the podium but he could lead singing. He was a true man of God, and I know he will be greatly missed. RIP
