“ Jackie was my 3rd or 4th cousin and it was my purest pleasure to get to know her late in life. She was such a joy and inspiration. With Jackie, the glass was always half full, never half empty. She found a way to laugh and joke about every mishap and setback. She was always positive in deed, word and thought. A negative word never crossed her lips. I enjoyed talking to her on the phone as she always left me in high spirits and I admired her more every time we spoke. I will miss her but will remember all the conversations and laughter we shared. It is comforting to know that she is with Jesus now walking the streets of gold and along the path of the living waters. She knows a peace that we all aspire to share one of these days. If ever her smile could get any larger, it surely is now. I will never forget you, dear friend.

“ We share in your loss and hope you are reunited in the Lord's presence one day. Mrs. Harris was as sharp as a whip and always remembered your name, even after being apart for a time. She was an amazing lady and it was a privilege to know her.
