

Marlyn Castleberry

May 18, 1948 - January 3, 2019

Marlyn Castleberry was a dedicated Christian woman. She showed her faith through helping others, loving others and she led through example. Along with her faith she had many talents and her favorite pastime: OKLAHOMA SOONERS! Every Saturday in the fall the family would gather and watch football. She loved her Sooners! When she was not watching football, Marlyn spent time calling others and checking up on those she loved.

She was a great listener, friend and confidant. She had a wonderful sense of humor and she could make anyone laugh. She knew a little bit about everything and was a quick with a wise comment.

Marlyn's example of compassion was shown in her love of animals. Countless times a stray animal would find Marlyn and she adopted them as her own. Her deepest commitment was to her family. She was a loving mother and a loving Nana to her only grandchild.

“ I not only worked with Marlyn but, she was a great friend. She had a way of talking to me when things were what i felt was out of control. Advising me to look at things from all angles. Bringing perspective. Don't misunderstand though she was so fiesty and fun to work with. I call her a spitfire. You would have thought she was 10 feet tall. She didn't fear anyone or anything. She loved her family I loved hearing about everyone . To Ashley you were her pride and joy. If you follow what she has taught you, you will do very well in life. David and Sonja you were so blessed to have a mom like Marlyn. My thoughts and prayers are with you all . I know she left a big hole in our lives but, I'm sure she's rejoicing with Jesus and all who went before. Take comfort in knowing she is walking streets of gold and is completely healed. I will miss my friend always. Denise
