She took great joy in gifting her quilts to her children and grandchildren. She always embellished her work with a quote that read, "The best kind of sleep beneath heaven above, is under a quilt handmade with love."

Mary Lou was preceded in death by her loving husband, Robert E "Bob" Phillip and son, Charles B "Chuck" Phillips. She is survived by her son, Bill and his wife, Nancy; daughter, Cindy and her husband, Dan; son, Rob and his wife, Lori and daughter, Luann. “ Your mom was one of the greatest moms. She always welcomed everyone with a smile on her face. There were kids everywhere!!! She always treated all of them as she treated her own children. Her home was safe, loving, and fun.

You are in my prayers during this time.

“ I did not have the privilege of ever meeting Ms. Phillips but know that she was quite a woman by the impact that she has had on her children even to this day. I personally know Rob, her son, and I have always been honored to see the way that he took care of his mother, sending flowers, visiting her as often as he could and doing anything he could to make her life more enjoyable. This type of devotion from a son can only come from the tremendous love, living example and support that Ms. Phillips has planted and watered into Rob and his other siblings and grand children.

I am sorry for the loss of personal contact that will now exist between you all, but do know that Ms. Phillips has made a glorious change of address and is now rejoicing and living the life that she dreamed of, excited to soon share that life with all of her children and grandchildren who she loved with every bit of her strength.

Mary Lou Phillips has impacted so many lives through her own efforts as well as the efforts that have been carried on through her children - May God's abundant grace strengthen all of her family during this time of transition.

“ Mary Lou and Bob were our best friends for many years. I have ver many good memories. Our first date was a double-date with them and they are the witnesses signed on our marriage license. (we made it 58 years-1946 to 2005) Mary Lou stood up with us to renew our vows at our 50thAniversary celebration. Much love to all you kids. I love you dearly. Loretta (Looney) Jones, Turney
