“ Dear Ginger and family,
Willis and I were so sad to hear of the death of your husband, Sam.
We send our prayers to all of you.
Here was my morning Scripture when I prayed for you.
"Though the fig tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will be joyful in God my Savior. The Sovereign LORD is my strength; He makes my feet like the feet of a deer, He enables me to go on the heights". Habakkuk 3:17-19
Lean on those Everlasting Arms. Blessings, Linda and Willis

“ My wife and I were so sorry to hear of Sam's passing. Our thoughts and prayers will certainly be with the family.

Though I had not seen Sam for many years, until just recently, I cherish the memories of going to school and traveling with him and Paul Martin in a gospel trio. We sang, laughed, and did onery boy things together. One of my best memories is when the three of us "papered" Ginger's house one evening. After creatively decorating her yard we were running back to the car. A man from the neighborhood stopped and gruffly asked what we were doing in the neighborhood. We were all frightened and didn't want to admit what we did, but he wasn't going to leave us alone unless we did. Finally we admitted the prank. He said, "Oh, is that all. I used to do that too. You boys go on and get out of here. We were so relieved, and what a laugh we had as we drove away from the neighborhood. The three of us made memories that can never be taken away.
